I love the library van because they give you books to read.

I like the library because the little ones get to choose books when they cant go to the big library.

I like reading the books because they help you know things and are exciting with lots of stories.

I like choosing books and doing it myself

I cant buy books so the library is where I can go for books.

from Alfie age 7

