

I love going to the mobile library because I love reading books and my mum and dad don't have enough time to go to the big library and they don't have a lot of money for buying books. It is exciting to choose my own books and take them home to read. No more mobile library means no books.

Ruby 7yrs